For the past 12 years, Parsons has consistently ranked in the top 15 of Engineering News-Record's lists of both the Top 500 Design Firms and the Top 200 Environmental Firms. Parsons provides total global solutions for planning, systems integration, engineering, environmental, design, construction, information technology, and program management services to clients. Our worldwide staff consists of over 10,500 managers, engineers, analysts, designers, scientists, technicians, information assurance specialists, IT specialists, and administrators, who help deliver services ranging from site selection and location analysis of new facilities and infrastructure, to systems integration, management systems, logistic systems, intelligence and security consulting, advanced signal processing techniques, instrumentation systems; aircraft and missile avionics and communication systems, smart weapons guidance and control, maritime and intermodal transportation, infrastructure security, crisis management, crisis recovery planning, operational analysis, counter-terrorism and counter-drug support, environmental engineering, planning, design, project management, energy, information technology, and turnkey construction projects.

QUALITY

Parsons employs a companywide quality management program with defined processes, roles, and responsibilities; requires all project management plans to have site-specific quality control plans; gives the project quality manager authority to stop work if non-conformances are not corrected, and requires quality flow down to all subcontractors.

SAFETY

Safety is extremely important to Parsons; our commitment is second to none. All projects are required to prepare and implement a Health and Safety Plan. Project meetings at any level begin with a safety tip, discussion of issues, recommendations for improvement, or review of procedures. As a result, Parsons has a better-than-industry-average safety record.
