Labor Position Descriptions

Post Production Express

Description: Produce a transcript of pre-recorded videos as a first step in the closed captioning process to create a finished transcript that meets 99%-100% verbatim accuracy. Editors have excellent knowledge and application of English grammar and punctuation. Editors use internet research skills to aid in accuracy of transcript editing. The transcript is then timed to the video by a time coder who uses specialized software to export captions into video files and synchronize the captions precisely with the video, all while maintaining proper presentation rate, placement, and synchronicity with the video file. FCC and ADA Compliant. Includes transcoding and embedding if needed. 30 hour turnaround. (This rate also applies for transcription and retimes)

Premium Post Production

Description: Produce a transcript of pre-recorded videos as a first step in the closed captioning process to create a finished transcript that meets 100% verbatim accuracy. Editors have excellent knowledge and application of English grammar and punctuation. Editors use internet research skills to aid in accuracy of transcript editing. The transcript is then timed to the video by a time coder who uses specialized software to export captions into video files and synchronize the captions precisely with the video, all while maintaining proper presentation rate, placement, and synchronicity with the video file. File is then QCed a final time to ensure accuracy. FCC and ADA Compliant. Includes transcoding and embedding if needed. 48 hour turnaround.

Fast Turnaround

Description: Additional service after transcription and caption file has been produced where file is needed back before standard turnaround time. Only available for files 1-120 min in length.

REAL-TIME C.A.R.T.

Description: Description: CART (Communication Access Real-time Translation) is a verbatim speech-to-text service for people who need communication access. This Real-time service is provided as the event occurs via streaming captions on a projection screen, individual computer, or even smartphone. CART allows for equal communication access for all participants at events such as lectures, conferences, government meetings, church services, sporting events and more.
