About 3GIMBALS

3GIMBALS was formed in 2014 in the middle of the Silicon Valley commercial geospatial revolution. We began by providing strategy development, market research, strategic communications, and project management services as we helped our clients integrate this new capability into their existing workflows to discover what was possible.

The knowledge we gained during this phase launched us into a role of thought leaders and early adopters. We then began helping accelerate government adoption of the disruptive emerging technologies that we found in the marketplace. This positioned us to create shareable geospatial insights and engineering services that are truly helping unlock the game-changing capabilities hiding in the commercial geospatial revolution.

Because 3GIMBALS is a services company, not a platform or hardware company, we are uniquely positioned to always have access to the most cutting-edge data and tools available. With our deep knowledge or our customer challenges and strong connections in the emerging marketplace, we are able to accelerate unlocking the potential and driving adoption of the new capabilities by government organizations.

Innovating and leading innovation are core to our value proposition. Coupled with our strong belief that trust and genuine respect are required for successful relationships means that 3GIMBALS is able to create new opportunities and solutions for our customers on a regular basis. We maintain a “Day One Company” mindset every day and obsess over exceeding our customer’s expectations.

About our name

3GIMBALS has always been dedicated to helping leaders and their organizations make disruptive leaps forward without breaking the organization, the people, or the leader (i.e., in balance).

A gimbal is a pivoted support that allows an object to rotate about a single axis. A set of three gimbals, one mounted on the other with orthogonal pivot axes, allows an object mounted on the innermost gimbal to remain independent of movement by the object to which it is mounted.

For example, on a ship, the gyroscopes, shipboard compasses, stoves, and even drink holders typically use gimbals to keep them upright with respect to the horizon despite the ship’s pitching and rolling. This three-gimbal configuration is called a Cardan suspension. It is named after Italian mathematician and physicist Gerolamo Cardano (1501–1576) who described it in detail.

Just as a Cardan suspension keeps an item stable despite movement all around it, 3GIMBALS helps our customers make rapid, first-mover advances by quickly embracing disruptive emerging technologies while strengthening their organizations in the process.
