COMPANY OVERVIEW

Northport Affiliates, LLC (Northport) is a Department of Veterans Affairs, Service-Disabled, Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) verified by the VA’s Center for Verification and Evaluation. Headquartered in Alexandria, Virginia, Northport is located in the national capital region (NCR). Northport was founded in 2012 and qualified for the Vets First Contracting Program within the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Northport principals specialize in organizational development, change management, strategic planning and innovative program initiatives to improve government program cost effectiveness and service delivery.

Northport’s veteran heritage and multi-faceted leadership experience is grounded on an unwavering dedication to excellence and integrity. Northport’s principals and key executives have distinguished themselves in demanding leadership positions in both the Executive and Legislative branches of Government. Northport principals and staff possess a wealth of experience and expertise staffing and managing complex requirements within the Army, the Department of Energy, and the DoD. Northport has extensive experience addressing complex programmatic and policy implementation issues in large diverse governmental organizations. For the Department of Energy Northport principal’s advised the White House on organizational components to include in the Department of Energy Organization Act of 1977 creating the United States Department of Energy (USDOE).

Founder, Frederic Corle, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), served as a Policy Analyst in the Executive Office of the President, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) responsible for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Civil Works Programs. This White House assignment required expertise in principles and methods of analyzing and improving organizations, identifying, and addressing major operating problems in federal programs and a thorough understanding of budget administration, appraisal of budgetary requirements and Federal acquisition procedures.

In 1996, Mr. Corle founded the Spatial Technologies Industry Association (STIA). Mr. Corle served as President of the Spatial Technologies Industry Association (STIA) from June 1999 to January 2005 and lead STIA’s activities and its success addressing issues of importance to companies that make up the Spatial Technologies Industry, including a significant grant from the Department of Labor to train workers for careers in the geospatial industry under the Presidents’ High Growth Job Training Initiative. STIA was selected to work with industry, community college and public workforce investment system partners to develop a consensus definition to enable a solid and positive understanding of the economic and career opportunities within the geospatial technology sector and its segments.

For the National Geo-Spatial Intelligence Agency (NGA), under contract, Corle provided technical and coordination services to support NGA’s Acquisition/Pre-Acquisition Office (AP) including: 1) determining the potential benefits of commercial imagery for NGA including the facilitators and inhibitors for NGA use of commercial imagery. The analysis provided to NGA included 1) the business case for NGA using commercial imagery; 2) developing options and assessments for involving commercial vendors as consultants to the NGA acquisition program.
This contract with the NGA also included developing options and assessments for education and outreach programs, symposiums, and partnerships to inform policy makers and others on spatial issues of importance to the Nation. Tasks included establishing a working group of industry and government executives to develop a program agenda and enable the identification and recruitment of Nationally recognized speakers; examining similar National symposia such as the Space Foundation’s Annual National Space Symposium; developing a comprehensive management and marketing plan and preparing recommendations to NGA for recurring events to inform policy makers and others on spatial issues of importance to the Nation. As a result of this contract, STIA hosted the highly acclaimed inaugural GEO-INT Conference in New Orleans, LA in 2003 attracting over 1500 attendees, 50 corporate exhibitors and national media coverage of the conference featuring the newly renamed National Geo-Intelligence Agency (NGA).

Northport is a proven performer whose principals have extensive experience resolving complex problems for corporations, federal agencies and not-for-profit organizations created by policy decisions, legislation and/or regulatory actions and is ideally suited to contributing to your mission success.
