About ASC

ASC, a women-owned small business, has delivered strategic communications and public engagement to Federal and State agencies since 1992. We help our customers communicate about issues that affect Americans; through strategic communications and proven public engagement methods, ASC facilitates change that helps save and improve lives.

ASC's proven "inside out" approach converts technical information into dynamic messaging through a communications process that reaches every stakeholder and addresses all information needs.

We integrate a solid understanding of government procurement, regulatory requirements, and return-on-investment to reduce risk and deliver accountability in every proposed solution.

Every member of our team is selected for top-level capabilities, a dedication to advancing communication in the public interest, and a commitment to ASC's continual improvement program.

ASC has built an enviable reputation as a trusted, collaborative, and creative firm that public agencies turn to for smart solutions, executed with flexibility, sensitivity to agency needs, and an unsurpassed track record of on target, on time, and on budget delivery.

ASC delivers top-flight capabilities without layers. We staff projects with the best minds for the job—and they work shoulder-to-shoulder with our customers to keep our teams, our creative acumen, and our focus, clearly on agency and program goals. We source the right people to work on our projects, not simply the people in the next office.

ASC has developed sought-after expertise in creating plain-language communication for public agencies that aligns with and supports technical programs. Our “inside-out” approach to engaging and informing gradually expanding tiers of audiences, beginning with Federal staff and State partners, has been used successfully by FHWA, FMCSA, FRA, and FTA, among others.

Areas of expertise include communications strategy, public relations, public engagement, outreach and event planning, market research, and creative services for public agencies in energy, transportation, safety, air quality, and the environment.

ASC services include:

- Communications, partnership building, and outreach strategies
- Public Involvement Plans, NEPA/SEQR/VII and Article 10
- Market research, focus groups, surveys
- Branding, brochures, newsletters, videos, commercial photography
- Print, broadcast, social media campaigns
- Websites, web marketing, digital media
- Events, press conferences, exhibit design, facilitation
- Media relations, media training press kits
- Stakeholder engagement and partnership building
