APPROVED PRICING and DESCRIPTIONS:

Images / Layout / Desktop Publishing

Desktop Publishing - the production of printed matter by means of a printer linked to a desktop computer, with special software. The system enables reports, advertising matter, company magazines, etc., to be produced cheaply with a layout and print quality like that of typeset books, for xerographic or other reproduction.

Static images, interactive charts, and other enhanced graphical elements necessitate special attention in the localization process. Whether your site requires something as simple as multilingual layout / desktop publishing of text or a more detailed copy adaptation process, GLC has the expertise to ensure that your images and visuals fully complement your localized copy, ensuring maximum impact in the target market.

Translation - the process of translating words or text from one language into another.

We provide linguistically accurate and culturally and idiomatically appropriate translations in any discipline, of any type of material, from English into any language, and from any language into English.

All of our written translations are completed by professional, certified human translators and editors, and go through our complete, multi-step Quality Control Process. Examples of subject matters we deal with most often are legal, medical, life sciences, business/finance, military/defense, advertising, public outreach & education, and more. However, there is no subject matter too obscure or too specialized for us to handle.

We provide two kinds of translation review services – editing and proofreading. Both services apply to previously translated materials, and we can help you determine which one will best suit your needs.

Editing & Proofreading

As part of our editing service, a professional, certified editor will review the translated material thoroughly, comparing it to its original counterpart. The material will be checked for translation accuracy as well as for grammatically and idiomatically correct language, and completeness.

GLC proofreading service involves checking mainly for grammatically and idiomatically correct language in a translated text but does not involve checking for translation accuracy or completeness, as it does not involve the comparison of the translated text to its original source document. Unless otherwise specified, both services focus on the content of the translated material and not on the formatting or layout.

*All Service types include: "Translation, Transcription, Proof Reading, Editing, File Prep, Glossary Development, Formatting, Desktop Publishing, Notarized, Repetitive, and other"
