ADR Services

All mediators have received at least 40 hour mediation training and have at least 5 years of experience. Mediators, if requested, will be responsible for contacting parties, arranging the time and place for mediation, and if an agreement is reached between the parties, writing the Settlement Agreement. Mediators ascribe to the Association of Conflict Resolution's Model Standards of Conduct for Mediators. Mediation service can be provided for all geographic areas. Mediators are prepared to mediate complaints involving civil rights matters such as disability, age, gender, and race.

ADR Training Services

Peninsula Mediation Center has a large number of off-the-shelf training courses and can tailor training depending to the specifications of the contracting agency. Training expertise and courses include training in mediation, negotiation, communication skills, and leadership training that focuses on agency civil rights complaint management.
