About ABC-TEAM Spielplatzgeräte GmbH

ABC-TEAM Spielplatzgeräte GmbH has been a major manufacturer of playground equipment and park furniture in Germany and Europe since 1982. We specialize in:

- Construction of play units in multiple variations of design and materials.
- Providing assistance during the entire project: design, manufacturing, installation and maintenance
- Our sales team is highly skilled and maintains all necessary qualifications
- All of our playground equipment is manufactured in accordance with all U.S. Playground Standards

ABC-TEAM Spielplatzgeräte GmbH guiding philosophy is:

Our children should grow into their social environment through play and in this way they should become familiar with the complex adult world.

We support you and them by producing products, which meet the requirements, needs and demands of children of all ages.

We aim to manufacture the ideal play equipment, which offers fun through play while simultaneously providing educational and learning benefits to the child.

Our playground equipment meets the most stringent quality requirements, relevant to all applicable standards, while at the same time provides the highest degree of safety.

Variety of design is a trademark of ABC-TEAM Spielplatzgeräte GmbH:

Based on our customers' specific needs and important factors such as playground requirements, age group, budget etc., customers can create their specialized playground using our vast assortment of play equipment, regardless of whether they are big or small, wood, steel or plastic. Imagination knows no bounds!

This imagination applies, in particular, to our playground equipment combinations. By using our wide range of different play elements, these combinations offer a vast range of possibilities in the design of the customer's individual playground equipment system.

Playgrounds are designed living spaces, so planning these spaces requires a qualified specialist with knowledge in the areas of regulations, standards and most importantly in regard to integrating the play equipment into the local environment and landscape. Our sales professionals provide you with this specialized knowledge. They advise you at every stage in planning and implementation of your project including the selection of the right play equipment, the structures and suitable play activities based on the age of the children.

We use state of the art computer-aided methods in the planning and construction of the playgrounds and playground equipment. We provide you with a full range of planning documentation to assure a successful project outcome.

Give our staff at ABC-TEAM Spielplatzgeräte GmbH a call for an outstanding playground for your children!
