Matted and Framed Photographic Wall Artwork

The wall art images in our collection are produced in two different shapes, depending on our design of the finished composition. The shapes are listed below as M (medium rectangle) and L (long rectangle). Each shape is produced in a number of sizes;

the numerical prefix indicates the short dimension of the image in inches. As an example, a 30M is an M shaped composition 30" wide or high, depending on its orientation. We call a vertical 30M a 30MV, a horizontal a 30MH. Please see scale drawings of the Series and sizes on the Customer Information page on the reverse side. Actual mat dimensions are 1/8" less in both length and width than the sizes in the tables below. Larger sizes and wall murals are available, please call or email us for details.

Ceiling Transparency Artwork

Ceiling Transparency Artwork creates a calming focal point for both patients and staff. From the patient's perspective, having a view to let the eye and mind wander can lower stress. Our clients report that their more relaxed patients make their staff's work easier and more successful, and help create a more productive environment. Our high resolution images are laminated to a diffusing panel under non-glare protective lamination. These image panels replace the existing diffuser in your existing ceiling light fixture. With the great variety of fixtures and diffusing cover sheets, we find that each piece should be custom sized. We will make sure the Ceiling Transparency panels you order fit easily into your existing light fixtures, or install them for you. We have designed and installed many custom Ceiling Transparencys, and will gladly consult with you regarding the specifics of your project; please call or email us for details. Product in Place - Aluminum framed prints: The frame and its finish are very stable and have no effect on their local environment. The print and mat are sealed with ArtShield. The sealed print and its foam-core backing will out-gas very slightly, having a negligible effect on their local environment. A data sheet on out-gas and flammability/flame spread is available upon request.

Wood framed prints: The frame is finished with a clear polyurethane coating for protection. The frame with this finish is very stable and has no effect on its local environment. The print and mat are sealed with ArtShield. The sealed print and its foam-core backing will out-gas very slightly, having a negligible effect on their local environment. A data sheet on out-gas and flammability/flame spread is available upon request.
Recycling - Aluminum framed prints: The frame and hanging system may be reused or disassembled and the aluminum sides and steel corner irons recycled.
Wood framed prints: The frame and hanging system may be reused. The print/mat/foam sandwich has been designed to remain securely assembled and is quite difficult to separate into recyclable elements.
