COMPANY OVERVIEW

Founded in 1960, Paper Pak Industries is the largest manufacturer in North America dedicated solely to the manufacturing of absorbent mediums for the food, medical and safety industries.

Paper Pak Industries, working with a team of military medical and absorbency experts, has developed an innovative, portable litter system designed to safely transport injured personnel.

APLS, the Absorbent Patient Litter System, is designed to quickly relocate injured military personnel and civilians to the appropriate medical facility where necessary medical procedures can be safely administered.

APLS products improve the safety and comfort of injured personnel and their medical responders and are ideal for use in military, mass casualty, mass fatality, and search and rescue operations.

APLS products are rugged and lightweight, feature a compact design, and can be carried anywhere, enabling first responders to respond quicker and more efficiently.
