Test Reports, Deliverables, & Surcharge Options

The unit cost pricing provided includes the following standard deliverables:

1. DHL Analytical will provide all sample bottles, preservatives, blue ice (if requested), sample container seals, shipping containers and seals, chain-of-custody forms, and shipping of these items to the site or other specified location, but not from the site to the laboratory.
2. A report in pdf format will be sent to the project manager within the turnaround time specified in the table. Note that the turnaround time is by close of business (6 pm Central Time) on the due date.
3. The format of the report and contents will be compliant with NELAC specifications. The content of the report will include:
 - (1) Cover page signed by approved laboratory management.
 - (2) Copies of Chain of Custody, Bill of Lading, critical correspondence, and checklist for sample receipt.
 - (3) Case Narrative discussing analytical process and any Quality Control results that are flagged in the report.
 - (4) Summary of samples received.
 - (5) Results of the requested tests.
 - (6) Results of the Quality Control samples analyzed in the same batches as the samples.

The table below lists additional surcharges.
