ATSPCB07	ATS PCB 07 Dual SCR	Two ATS PCB 02 boards in tandem. The ATS 2 board takes a "make" (closure), "break" (opening), or low-voltage trigger to "latch" a SCR (silicon controlled rectifier).	$39.68	$39.49	$39.09	$38.49	$37.30	$36.11
ATSPCB08	ATS PCB 08 Programmable Timer	This unmodified form is a dip-switch-settable electronic countdown and firing timer (LM555 chip), with MULTIPLE "break" and "make" connection points as anti-tamper features.	$39.68	$39.49	$39.09	$38.49	$37.30	$36.11
ATSPCB11	ATS PCB 11 Single Digit DTMF	Decodes a single, jumper-selected DTMF (Dual Tone, Multi-Frequency) analog tone to output a penalty voltage. The signal source may be the audio output of a radio, a cell phone, or the ATSPCB13 receiver.	$30.28	$30.13	$29.83	$29.38	$28.47	$27.56

ATSPCB13	ATS PCB MOD 5 RF Populated board	Primarily used with the "Spider MOD-5" system, this is a fixed-frequency radio receiver operating in the "2-meter" (VHF) spectrum. The circuit provides a source of DTMF (Dual tone, Multi-Frequency) analog signals. May be used with ATSPCB6 or ATSPCB 11 circuits to create an RCIED device.	$96.14	$95.66	$94.70	$93.26	$90.37	$87.49

Tactical Operations Subject Matter Expert (SME) & Training Specialist, Principal	8	Provide objective advice, expertise and specialized skills in, but not limited to, supporting projects related to the individual's subject matter expertise. Develops and delivers courses for military customers specific to their diverse operating environments and cover the spectrum from conventional to Special Operations units. Among these are courses tailored to organizations that provide direct support to and work with Special Mission Units. The organizations working with Special Mission Units face unique limitations such as need for speed, limited equipment, nighttime operations, and covert operations, which require specialized training. These courses are developed and taught by instructors with extensive operational experience, with a preference for those with Special Operations Forces (SOF) experience. The instructional designers and curriculum developers must produce courses tailored specifically to the educational needs of the specific target audience, providing training solutions to current and anticipated tactical, operational, and strategic threats. The full life cycle learning management system tracks participant achievement of learning objectives. Develop and deliver courses that emphasize the practical application of theory through hands-on exercises and scenario-based practice events. Considered an emerging authority, who applies extensive technical expertise. Develops technical solutions to complex problems. Exercises considerable latitude in determining objectives and approaches to assignment.	Bachelors
