

SYNOPSIS

Spectrum Security Services, Inc. specializes in guarding and transporting federal prisoners & detainees.

Spectrum Security Services Inc. has been providing prisoner and detainee security and transportation services for the U.S. Marshals Service (USMS), Bureau of Prisons (BOP), Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and various other agencies for 30 years.

Spectrum Security Services, Inc. specializes in short-notice, on-call services, and has a proven record of accomplishment in its ability to respond to guard service requests within short notices in the United States. Spectrum maintains a 24/7 operation structure in order to offer an effective service for all federal agencies. The many years that Spectrum has serviced the Department of Homeland Security and Department of Justice, has also allowed the company to become well acquainted with the concerns and needs of these federal agencies. As Spectrum's policies reflect its awareness of these concerns and needs, the company focused on, and specialized in mediating between federal agencies, public, and medical facilities.

Spectrum has guarded and successfully transported over 250,000 federal prisoners and detainees to and from a number of federal facilities and over 60 hospitals in California and Arizona since 1989. Spectrum utilizes its own properly equipped and caged vehicles, as well as government owned vehicles for transportation of prisoners and detainees.

JOB DEFINITIONS

DETENTION OFFICER

The Detention Officer (DO) performs various duties related to detention, safeguarding, security and escort of violators of US immigration laws, exercises surveillance over detainees, and maintains order and discipline, attends to sheltering, feeding, and physical well-being of detainees, and counseling of alien detainees on personal matters. DO guards detainees at deportation or exclusion hearings, recognizes potentially hazardous health, safety, security, or discipline problems, supervises detainee work details, and encourages participation in organized recreational activities. The DO should possess a high school diploma or equivalent, specialized training, and have a minimum of 6 months of experience in the corrections/law enforcement environment.

PROJECT MANAGER FOR DETENTION SERVICES

The Project Manager (PM) is the company's direct liaison between the company and the agency. The PM works closely with the Contracting Officer's Representative (COR), or the Contracting Officer to ensure compliance with contract terms, to ensure that services levels remain adequate, and to ensure timeliness of deliverables. The PM provides guidance to Supervisory Detention Officers in the performance of their duties and holds them accountable for quality of service. The Project Manager should possess a BA degree or higher and/or have a minimum of five years administrative and project management experience in the corrections/law enforcement environment.

SUPERVISORY DETENTION OFFICER

The Supervisory Detention Officer (SDO) is a line level Supervisor who oversees the performance of DOs to ensure compliance with post orders. The SDO receives and implements instructions from the Project Manager and supervises DOs. SDOs interact with ICE Supervisors. SDO must be tactful, demonstrate sound judgment, and maintains situational awareness. The ability to communicate with Management, subordinates, detainees, and the public is the principle requirement. SDO should have a minimum of two years of experience in the corrections/law enforcement environment and must complete supervisory training.

GUARD I

Guard I carries out detailed instructions and procedures primarily oriented to ensure that emergencies and security violations are readily discovered, and reported to appropriate authority. The primary duty is to observe and report security and emergency situations. This guard intervenes directly only in situations which require minimal action to safeguard property or persons. Duties require minimal training and physical fitness standards. The Guard I should possess a high school diploma or equivalent and have a minimum of 6 months of experience in the corrections/law enforcement environment.

GUARD II

The Guard II enforces regulations and procedures designed to prevent breaches of security, exercises judgment and uses discretion in responding to incidents and emergencies, determining whether to intervene directly, ask for assistance as time permits, keep situation under control or surveillance, or to report incident or situation to the appropriate authority for handling. Duties require specialized training in methods and techniques of protecting controlled areas. Commonly, the Guard II is required to demonstrate proficiency with firearms and other special weapons, and to meet with physical fitness standards. The Guard II should possess a high school diploma, have a minimum of 6 months of experience in the corrections/law enforcement environment and meet licensing requirements to demonstrate proficiency with firearms and other special weapons.
