EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Cambridge has developed a five tier system of supervision and quality control based on intensive communication with our clients and our employees. Our executives communicate directly with clients to assess specific security needs for each engagement. Our account managers communicate directly with our site supervisors and clients to implement the security plan and to make adjustments in real time. Our field inspectors constantly communicate goals and expectations directly to security officers via frequent on-site visits. Our security officers communicate with our National Command Center (NCC) – at the beginning and end of each shift and to report each job-site incident. The NCC in turn communicates these developments back up the chain of command.

THE CAMBRIDGE/CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

At Cambridge Security, we emphasize individual involvement. Our account executives are personally committed to the interests of each client. In the case of most clients, one account executive is responsible on an overall basis for the continuing relationship with the client. When the scope of a client's needs require the attention of more than one security specialist, or when its nature is such that personnel at more than one level of experience can produce the best results for the client, that manager will be responsible for assembling the most economical mix of personnel and specialists to attend to these needs. As a result, clients are assured, not only of access to appropriate expertise, but of personnel continuity as well.

SERVICES

Our principal business is security guard service. We provide military-style uniformed and corporate-attired security guards, door attendants, concierges and security receptionists, as well as armed guards, and mobile patrols. We are also the premier provider of both special event security and strike management. We provide security for all types of properties including multi-family housing, office buildings, corporate and professional offices, construction sites, industrial plants, distribution centers and warehouses, medical facilities, schools, houses of worship, hotels, malls, parking garages, as well as other private and public facilities.

THE COMMAND CENTER

Cambridge Security operates a 24-hour command center, which can immediately respond to changing client needs. Should a client need additional security at their plant or building; have an urgent need for secure transportation or be confronted with an unforeseen security emergency, we have the organizational design and resources to respond at once. The command center also ensures that all assignments are covered regardless of any event.

TECHNOLOGY

Cambridge clients enjoy the benefits of the latest and most advanced technology. We employ a comprehensive mobile digital communications system, as well as electronic guard tour systems. We can also arrange for closed circuit T.V., access systems and other security equipment to meet your every requirement.

GSA MAS CONTRACT INFORMATION: GS-07F-0321Y

There are levels of access and transaction capability by limited employees for all bank accounts, including notification of key executives of all wires in and out of all accounts.

Cambridge Security uses an outside service for processing payroll and invoicing. These services are integrated and provided by a company called Valiant, widely recognized as one of the leading billing/payroll systems for Security Firms.

MARKETING PLAN

RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING

To offer effective and reliable service, the method used for recruitment is a primary factor in providing the most qualified, reliable and dedicated employees. Selection is most important and we spend a great deal of time in background checks. A candidate's previous experience and history is carefully reviewed before a decision can be made.

All employees that will be assigned to Armed Posts must be certified to carry lethal weapons as well as less lethal enforcement tools.

Our security guard training program for GSA will include the following:

- Basic Qualification Training
- Orientation Training
- Refresher Training
- Re-Certification Training
- Supervisory Training

Training course schedules will take into account the training anniversary dates of retained Incumbent personnel, as well as all training requirements for newly hired personnel. All plans, schedules, and requests for additional training will be subject to the CO and Oversight Manager's review and written approval. Weekly and monthly training schedules will be published in advance, distributed to all Commanders, and posted in the Work Control Center. The CO and Oversight Manager and Technical Monitor(s) also will receive copies of our training schedules, and will be invited to monitor and participate in the sessions.

GSA MAS CONTRACT INFORMATION: GS-07F-0321Y

BASIC TRAINING

Security guard candidates will receive the required basic training and certification following completion of pre-employment screening.

Topics covered include, but are not limited to:

- Constitutional and Juvenile Law
- Safety, Security and Fire Prevention/Protection
- Security Patrol Methods
- Report Writing
- Traffic Control

Candidates will be scheduled for training and testing after they have completed and passed the Company's training program. Successful candidates will be required to pass the written general knowledge test administered by either the Oversight Manager or a Technical Monitor. Once the candidate has met these requirements and passed the tests, we will provide a Report of Training Completion to the CO and Oversight Manager before assigning the security guard to a duty post. By the 10th of each contract month, we will submit a report that lists all training provided during the previous month, including the names, social security numbers, and test scores of successful trainees.

ON-THE-JOB POST TRAINING

Prior to deployment, our Instructor will ensure that all our guard service personnel will receive a minimum of 24 hours of additional, on-the-job training, preferably at the actual post the guard(s) will be manning. As part of our aggressive cross-training and cross-utilization approach to optimizing manpower and reducing costly downtime, all security personnel will receive an additional four hours of post-specific on-the-job training prior to rotation into any new Post.

GSA MAS CONTRACT INFORMATION: GS-07F-0321Y

REFRESHER AND GSA INFORMATION TRAINING

Our Instructor will ensure that all security personnel receive a minimum of 12 hours of refresher training each contract year. With the exception of first aid and CPR re-certification, all refresher training will be hands-on and on-site to allow participation and monitoring by the CO, Oversight Manager, and Technical Monitors. Results of re-certification and refresher training will be maintained in the Work Control Center and will be made available to the Oversight Manager on request.

WEAPONS TRAINING

Security officer candidates will receive the required basic training and certification following completion of pre-employment screening. They will complete the required weapons qualification training and any GSA provided on-site orientation and training. Candidates will be scheduled for GSA provided training and testing after they have completed and passed our training program. Successful candidates are required to pass the written general knowledge test administered by us, as well as the firearm range proficiency test. Once the candidate has met these requirements and passed the tests, we will provide a Report of Training Completion to the CO and Oversight Manager before assigning the security officer to a GSA duty post. By the 10th of each contract month, we will submit a report that lists all training provided during the previous month, including the names, Social Security numbers, and test scores of successful trainees.

Immediately on notice of contract award, we will begin processing the documentation and requests for the required GSA weapon permits. We will submit the requests to the local State Police as soon as possible so that they will complete processing by the contract start date.
