SIN	Hourly Rate
246-54	(Refer to price table below)

2. MAXIMUM ORDER: $200,000 per order

*If the best value selection places your order over the Maximum Order identified in this catalog/pricelist, you have an opportunity to obtain a better schedule contract price. Before placing your order, contact the aforementioned contractor for a better price. The contractor may (1) offer a new price for this requirement (2) offer the lowest price available under this contract or

(3) decline the order. A delivery order that exceeds the maximum order may be placed under the schedule contract in accordance with FAR 8.404.

3. MINIMUM ORDER: $100

4. GEOGRAPHIC COVERAGE: see Wage Determinations for approved locations

5. PRODUCTION POINT: N/A Services

6. DISCOUNT FROM LIST PRICES: Pricing shown on the McRoberts Protective Agency, Inc. Price List effective September 1, 2011 includes the Industrial Funding Fee (IFF) of 0.75%. The same methodology for pricing will be utilized substituting Wage Determinations added at a later date.

For calculation of the GSA Schedule price (price paid by customers ordering from the GSA Schedule, and the price to be loaded into GSA Advantage), the contractor should deduct the appropriate basic discount from the list price and add the prevailing IFF rate to the negotiated discounted price (Net GSA price). Current IFF rate is 0.75%. Negotiated price divided by (1 minus .0075) which equates to Negotiated price divided by 0.9925. Example ($$100,000 / 0.9925$) = $100,755.67

Profile of McRoberts Protective Agency, Inc.

From clipper ships to computer chips, McRoberts Protective Agency, Inc., has been setting the standard in security service since 1876. McRoberts is the oldest established security firm in America. Meredith McRoberts, the current chief executive officer, is the fifth generation to head the business. Now into its third century, McRoberts is a full-service security provider with operations from coast to coast.

During the same year that General George Custer was leading the 7th Cavalry to the Little Bighorn and Alexander Graham Bell was applying for a patent on his invention, Irish immigrant William J. McRoberts was employed as a coffee inspector on the Brooklyn, N.Y., piers.

In those days the New York waterfront was a bustling place, with tall clipper ships chock-a-block and swarms of workers hustling about the business of loading and unloading them. At the heart of the chaos was the longshore fraternity, a rough, poorly paid occupation that bred dishonesty. Not surprisingly, pilferage was rampant.

It was this tumultuous state of affairs that set the context of opportunity for the young entrepreneur, William J. McRoberts (pictured in his later years). With his father-in-law as a partner, he founded his own private security company in his name, and began offering his services to cargo owners and carriers. He provided a cost-effective solution to cargo protection which was widely subscribed to from its inception.

Others were quick to offer competition. By 1908, waterborne trade to New York was such a thriving industry that it supported half a dozen waterfront private security companies. McRoberts is the only one of those forerunners that has survived and prospered to the present day.

With continuous operations for one hundred and thirty three years, McRoberts is today the 23rd largest security agency in America, providing approximately two million hours of uniformed guard service annually to clients in fourteen geographic markets and ten vertical markets, including museums. McRoberts is the choice of discerning corporate clients who appreciate the real value of best practices and a real service commitment. Wherever security officers have heavy contact with members of the public, McRoberts excels due to its deeply-ingrained corporate culture that stresses customer service. McRoberts is the largest provider of special-event security in the New York metropolitan area. McRoberts is a WBE (Woman Business Enterprise) certified by the State of New Jersey and the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey.

The McRoberts Mission

To uphold the founding principles of commitment to service and pride in performance in the delivery of customized security solutions developed through responsive and flexible partnerships with clients.

A Company of Clients

McRoberts is a company of clients, both external and internal. It is through the rigorous scrutinizing and implementation of best practices in recruitment, human resources, supervision, management and administration that the company is able to continue to deliver on its mission. McRoberts is committed to the needs of its clients. No two security programs are alike, except in the high degree to which customers rely on McRoberts. Going above and beyond the call of duty is standard practice. Responsiveness is measured in minutes.

With its full spectrum of capabilities, McRoberts is not just a security guard vendor; it can be a valued and integral asset in your organization. McRoberts' key experience is revealed in the extent to which clients rely on McRoberts to serve their interests and add value to their organizations.

The internal clients deployed at any site will enjoy competitive compensation, a choice of three benefits plans, holiday and vacation entitlements, cash bonuses for performance and longevity, plenty of training, fairness, respect, appreciation and inclusion in the decisions that affect them. McRoberts enjoys the lowest turnover rate among both external and internal clients in the industry.

Maximum Value

McRoberts invests more in every aspect of service delivery than its competitors in order to maximize the value in the billing rates. The areas in which McRoberts delivers extra value are not limited to but include the following:

- A. Capability of providing full-service, integrated and comprehensive security solutions.
- B. Commitment to leveraging state-of-the-art technology to enhance efficiency, performance and compliance.
- C. 24/7 in-house command center.
- D. Best practices in human resources, yielding rich applicant pool, low turn- over rate and excellence in performance.
- E. Customized training, with CBT available.
- F. ISO-9000-based quality assurance program.
- G. Highly-qualified and accessible management support.
- H. Accountability of ownership.
- I. Best available legal and insurance support.
