Schaad Detective Agency's History And Philosophy

Schaad Detective Agency, Inc. was established in 1972 by Russell C. Schaad, a retired captain of detectives of the York City Police Department and Russell L. Wantz, Jr. At the time of its inception only these two men worked for the agency.

During the early years, Schaad Detective Agency devoted its primary operation to investigative services. In 1975, Mr. Wantz visualized a need in the York, Pennsylvania area for a professional security service. He devoted many long hours into developing what has become the area's largest locally owned security agency. Schaad Detective Agency has progressed from its small beginning to over 350 hundred men and women who are currently employed today as professional security officers throughout Pennsylvania.

Schaad Detective Agency, Inc. specializes in personal protection, employee terminations, investigative services and security solutions for clients in both the public and private sectors. Our employees have extensive backgrounds in military and law enforcement at the federal, state, county and local municipal levels. We have provided both armed and unarmed officers for federal, state and local governments. Our office is staffed 24/7 with our supervisors and dispatch staff.
Mission Statement

Schaad Detective Agency, Inc. continually strives to meet or exceed the specific requirements of our clients by providing the highest quality of private security services, while keeping our primary emphasis on competence, professionalism, and integrity. Foster these core qualities through the careful selection and superior supervision, education, and training of our uniformed security officers and support staff.

Consistently maintain a stable and exceptionally positive working environment for our employees, which is characterized by fairness, loyalty, honesty, dedication, and determination that is commensurate with performance.

To accomplish our mission we:

- Hire the most highly trained and professional armed and unarmed security personnel to include personnel from our esteemed Armed Forces and Law Enforcement community.
- Make a commitment to rigorous initial and on-going training of armed and unarmed security guard/officers
- Utilize the industry's best resources to secure the information of our clients.
- Committed to ensure the satisfaction of our clients.
