FORWARD

American Eagle Protective Service Corporation (AEPS) is a leading provider of professional contract guard to the United States government.

AEPS' services are already approved for purchase under a government-wide contract available for use by any federal agency, the Multiple Award Schedule (MAS). This makes it easy and convenient for your agency to put our expert team of security professionals to work for you immediately.

AEPS is uniquely positioned to respond to the requirements of your agency. Through innovation, dedication to quality and industry-leading practices, AEPS has built a documented record of exceptional performance, and a reputation of providing highly qualified, dependable security personnel.

For information about AEPS or procurement of our services, please contact Curry Newton, Director of Operations, at 512.380.9700 (ext. 102).

INFORMATION FOR ORDERING ACTIVITIES

Orders placed pursuant to the MAS, using the procedures set forth in FAR 8.404, are considered to be issued pursuant to full and open competition. Therefore, when placing orders under the MAS, ordering offices need not seek further competition, synopsise the requirement, or make a separate determination of fair and reasonable pricing. GSA has already determined the prices of items under schedule contracts to be fair and reasonable. By placing an order against a schedule using the procedures outlined in FAR 8.404, the ordering office has concluded that the order represents the best value and results in the lowest overall cost alternative (considering price, special features, administrative costs, etc.) to meet the Government's needs.

INTRODUCTION TO AEPS CORPORATION

American Eagle Protective Services Corporation (AEPS) is a U.S. Small Business Administration 8(a) Certified, Woman-Owned American Company. AEPS specializes in providing professional services to commercial and federal government entities. We have extensive past and present experience in supporting both baseline and complex requirements on federal government contracts.

AEPS Corporation provides professional services to commercial and US Government agencies. AEPS was founded as a Corporation May 1, 2002 and is headquartered in Austin, Texas. AEPS was formed to fulfill the goals and ambitions of its founders, both of whom are former employees of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Bredgitt and Dan Walker are directors with powerful leadership and management skills. Both began their service contracting careers by working in executive-level positions for industry leaders, forging an expertise that brought the necessary skills, and past performance to AEPS.

AEPS is an ISO 9000:2001 Quality Management System compliant contractor. AEPS' ISO compliance assures customers that its methods and procedures are organized, standardized, and efficient, with quality built into each service provided. Our dedication to quality, process standardization, and self-evaluation ensures reliable and exceptional performance for our customers. Our outstanding reputation in supporting past and current contracts is a direct result of the ability to motivate our employees to achieve new, higher levels of performance. Our ability to lead and motivate employees creates monumental improvements in safety, job quality, timeliness, and cost-effectiveness. AEPS institutes self-imposed, formal inspection systems as a means of measuring the quality of service we provide on each contract. Our management plans are specifically designed to create a work force that is not only client oriented, but also well-trained and focused on customer support. The results of our quality program are significant: Our employees are proud members of the AEPS team; our customers are grateful for our dedicated support.

AEPS officers support vital homeland security programs and protect some of the nation's most sensitive infrastructure, high occupancy government buildings, research facilities that store chemical and biological agents, government computer centers and military installations.

AEPS has developed comprehensive experience and expertise in all aspects of facility security management. With customer-focused contract locations throughout the country, and time-tested, standardized recruitment, qualification and training programs, AEPS has the capability to provide uniformly qualified and trained security officers throughout the United States with little or no lead time.

AEPS offers a comprehensive range of security support services. Our security specialists and officers perform armed and unarmed post/gate control, magnetometer screening, roving foot and vehicle patrols, management of central communications/security centers, CCTV and alarm monitoring, security escort, dignitary protection, security training, threat assessment, emergency preparedness evaluation, vehicle and visitor screening/badging, armory management, and first responder emergency services. Our clients include the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Defense, the Department of Justice, the Department of the Treasury, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the National Park Service, Department of Labor, the Federal Emergency Management Administration, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Social Security Administration, and the United States Food and Drug Administration.

At AEPS, we define ourselves by the partnerships that we have built with our clients. We recognize the trust that our clients place in us, and that the success of our business is dependent upon, and measured by, the success of our government clients' missions. We are committed to service excellence, integrity and value.

LABOR CATEGORY INDEX SIN 242-54: GUARD SERVICES

The following paragraphs establish required qualifications for the corresponding labor categories. Each labor category contains a narrative description of the most prevalent and typical aspects of the duties and responsibilities of each category. Please note that these are not all inclusive listings. Specific customer needs may vary and task order requirements are stated accordingly.

When a specific labor category defines an amount of years experience as a substitute for an educational degree, only one degree may be substituted for each defined experience period. Registration as a Certified Protection Professional is considered equivalent to a Bachelor's degree. If the number of years experience is not provided as a substitute for an educational degree in a labor category, then a minimum of five additional years of specialized experience is required. If a request for substitution of two degrees is submitted, then ten additional years of specialized experience (five for each degree) must be provided in the nominee's work experience documentation (resume). Additional degrees may also be considered as a substitute for a lack of required experience tenure. An additional degree may substitute for the lack of two or fewer required years of experience.

AEPS carries basic liability insurance coverage for its security force. If the ordering office desires insurance coverage above the policy amount or performance bonds for security guards, the fees for such services will be negotiated outside the scope of this contract. AEPS can additionally provide security officers with varying levels of security clearance. An ordering office should contact our Director of Operations, at 512.380.9700 (ext. 102), to obtain pricing information for these services.
