About PIE

The majority of our business is referred to us by satisfied clients. Professional Interpreter Exchange was launched in 1993 by a few very dedicated people with personal ties to the deaf community and has, over a number of years, become the Maryland, Washington, DC, and Northern Virginia region's leading provider of interpreting services.

Since 2000, PIE has offered services for the deaf, hard of hearing, deaf-blind and foreign language users. Today, we provide service in a multitude of fields, including government, medical, legal, educational, and infinite community settings and are known for our ability to respond to last-minute Requests for Services. We attribute our solid reputation within the interpreting community to our unwavering dedication to customer service and attention to details.

Sign Language Interpreting

Professional Interpreter Exchange provides interpreting, transliterating and tactile services to deaf, deaf-blind and hard-of-hearing clients in the Maryland, Washington, DC and Northern Virginia region. A majority of our interpreters are RID, NAD and EIPA certified.

We also provide Certified Deaf Interpreters (CDI) for specific situations that require an interpreter who is deaf themselves to facilitate communication between the consumer and the hearing interpreter. Learn more about CDIs.

Foreign Language Interpreting

Professional Interpreter Exchange provides multilingual interpreting services for face-to-face and telephone-based spoken language. At present we offer services in more than 30 foreign languages and we are regularly adding additional languages and dialects.

Typical customers include business travelers, conference presenters and attendees, interview participants, parents and teachers (conferences), global corporate meetings, healthcare providers, tour operators and legal professionals. In all instances, we focus on removing the barriers to communication by facilitating understanding.

Service Contract Act (SCA) Statement

The Service Contract Act (SCA) is applicable to this contract and as it applies to the entire Professional Services Schedule (PSS) and all services provided. While no specific labor categories have been identified as being subject to SCA due to exemptions for professional employees (FAR 22.1101, 22.1102 and 29CRF 5413.300), this contract still maintains the provisions and protections for SCA eligible labor categories. If and/or when the Contractor adds SCA labor categories / employees to the contract through the modification process, the Contractor must inform the Contracting Officer and establish a SCA matrix identifying the GSA labor category titles, the occupational code, SCA labor category titles and applicable wage determination (WD) number. Failure to do so may result in cancellation of the contract.
