During this period, Metro will repair or at our option replace free of charge any product found to be defective. Metro will be the sole and exclusive remedy for any breach of warranty.

Damages resulting from freight, claimed or unclaimed, from accident, alteration, tampering, misuse, negligence or abuse voids this warranty.

No warranty is made with respect to non-standard materials selected by and used at the request of the customer. Contact the suppliers of these materials for further information.

The company's warranty extends to original purchasers acquiring new product directly from Metro, its authorized dealers and others so authorized to act as resellers of its products.

Except with respect to any non-disclaimable warranties imposed by law, there are no warranties that extend beyond the foregoing provisions, whether expressed or implied. No agent or sales representative has the authority to bind Metro to any warranty not expressly provided for above.

Metro uses a number of models, samples and photography to suggest the character of the products offered. Because of the natural variations in materials, Metro cannot and does not warrant that color, grain or textures will conform in all respects to the aforementioned models, samples and photography.
