- Over the road charter
- Available on short notice for groups of all sizes

- ⇒ June 2010 - All About Town drove the generals and staff of Air Force bases from all over North and South America; picking them up at Andrews Air Force Base and providing daily service from their hotel in downtown Washington, DC.
- ⇒ December 2009 - All About Town worked with Ft. Eustis, Williamsburg to transport soldiers to the airports for Christmas, and then picked them up for their return in January.
- ⇒ March 2009 - All About Town handled the transportation for The National Archives on their 75th anniversary, providing service for the day between the three facilities in Washington, DC for their day of festivities and ceremonies
- ⇒ Did you see the movie “Forrest Gump”? All the extras at the Lincoln Memorial scene rode All About Town buses from makeup and wardrobe in Virginia to the Lincoln Memorial for several days until filming was done. You may remember the All About Town bus that cut off Clint Eastwood from John Malkovich in the movie ‘In The Line Of Fire’; or the All About Town bus that almost ran over Arnold Schwarzenegger in ‘True Lies.’ In October 2010 All About Town worked on transportation for the “Transformers III” movie.

We have over 20 years’ experience with the movie industry – a perfect example of the type of long-term relationship we have with an industry that regularly visits Washington, DC.
