Aircraft that are not listed above can be offered within the appropriate category. The numbers of seats listed are estimates and subject to change. Hourly prices are not to exceed prices, therefore depending on aircraft positioning, departure times, routing, minimum guarantees, notice given, and other factors hourly prices may decrease. Hourly prices may include some or all the following aircraft, crew, maintenance, insurance, fuel ($2.50 base), basic ground handling, block times, and IFF as outlined by the lease provisions below. Examples of when additional insurance may be required include but are not limited to commercial war risk insurance, environmental pollution insurance, or any other coverage commonly excluded from air carrier commercial policies based upon the specialized nature of the work to be performed.

Lease Provisions:

- ACMIF&GH – Aircraft, Crew, Maintenance, Insurance, Fuel and Ground Handling
- ACMIF – Aircraft, Crew, Maintenance, Insurance and Fuel
- ACMI – Aircraft, Crew, Maintenance, and Insurance
- AIM – Aircraft, Insurance and Maintenance
- Lease arrangements may include Maintenance Reserves
- Lease arrangements may charge flight hours and/or monthly lease rates
- Lease arrangements may require minimum periods of performance and vary depending on aircraft type and market conditions. Long term periods of performance may result in a decrease in rates
- Lease arrangements can include modifications with specific equipment such as avionics, communication and navigational systems, engines, and other aviation items.
