GENERAL PURPOSE INFORMATION FOR ORDERING ACTIVITIES
APPLICABLE TO ALL SPECIAL ITEM NUMBERS

SPECIAL NOTICE TO AGENCIES: Small Business Participation

SBA strongly supports the participation of small business concerns in the Federal Acquisition Service. To enhance Small Business Participation SBA policy allows agencies to include in their procurement base and goals, the dollar value of orders expected to be placed against the Federal Supply Schedules, and to report accomplishments against these goals.

For orders exceeding the micro-purchase threshold, FAR 8.404 requires agencies to consider the catalogs/pricelists of at least three schedule contractors or consider reasonably available information by using the GSA Advantage!™ on-line shopping service (www.gsaadvantage.gov). The catalogs/pricelists, GSA Advantage!™ and the Federal Acquisition Service Home Page (www.gsa.gov/fas) contain information on a broad array of products and services offered by small business concerns.

This information should be used as a tool to assist ordering activities in meeting or exceeding established small business goals. It should also be used as a tool to assist in including small, small disadvantaged, and women-owned small businesses among those considered when selecting pricelists for a best value determination.

For orders exceeding the micro-purchase threshold, customers are to give preference to small business concerns when two or more items at the same delivered price will satisfy their requirement.

For administrative convenience, an ordering activity contracting officer may add items not on the Federal Supply Multiple Award Schedule (MAS) -- referred to as open market items -- to a Federal Supply Schedule blanket purchase agreement (BPA) or an individual task or delivery order, only if:

1. All applicable acquisition regulations pertaining to the purchase of the items not on the Federal Supply Schedule have been followed (e.g., publicizing (Part 5), competition requirements (Part 6), acquisition of commercial items (Part 12), contracting methods (Parts 13, 14, and 15), and small business programs (Part 19));

18. CONTRACTOR COMMITMENTS, WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS

a. For the purpose of this contract, commitments, warranties and representations include, in addition to those agreed to for the entire schedule contract:

1. Time of delivery/installation quotations for individual orders;
2. Technical representations and/or warranties of products concerning performance, total system performance and/or configuration, physical, design and/or functional characteristics and capabilities of a product/equipment/service/software package submitted in response to requirements which result in orders under this schedule contract.

The requirements of the Davis-Bacon Act do not apply if the construction work is incidental to the furnishing of supplies, equipment, or services. For example, the requirements do not apply to simple installation or alteration of a public building or public work that is incidental to furnishing supplies or equipment under a supply contract. However, if the construction, alteration or repair is segregable and exceeds $2,000, then the requirements of the Davis-Bacon Act applies.

The ordering activity issuing the task order against this contract will be responsible for proper administration and enforcement of the Federal labor standards covered by the Davis-Bacon Act. The proper Davis-Bacon wage determination will be issued by the ordering activity at the time a request for quotations is made for applicable construction classified installation, deinstallation, and reinstallation services under SIN 132-8 or 132-9.

6. CONVERSION FROM TERM LICENSE TO PERPETUAL LICENSE - N/A
   a. The ordering activity may convert term licenses to perpetual licenses for any or all software at any time following acceptance of software. At the request of the ordering activity the Contractor shall furnish, within ten (10) calendar days, for each software product that is contemplated for conversion, the total amount of conversion credits which have accrued while the software was on a term license and the date of the last update or enhancement.
   b. Conversion credits which are provided shall, within the limits specified, continue to accrue from one contract period to the next, provided the software remains on a term license within the ordering activity.
   c. The term license for each software product shall be discontinued on the day immediately preceding the effective date of conversion from a term license to a perpetual license.
   d. The price the ordering activity shall pay will be the perpetual license price that prevailed at the time such software was initially ordered under a term license, or the perpetual license price prevailing at the time of conversion from a term license to a perpetual license, whichever is the less, minus an amount equal to ______% of all term license payments during the period that the software was under a term license within the ordering activity.

7. TERM LICENSE CESSATION - N/A
   a. After a software product has been on a continuous term license for a period of ______ months, a fully paid-up, non-exclusive, perpetual license for the software product shall automatically accrue to the ordering activity. The period of continuous term license for automatic accrual of a fully paid-up perpetual license does not have to be achieved during a particular fiscal year; it is a written Contractor commitment which continues to be available for software that is initially ordered under this contract, until a fully paid-up perpetual license accrues to the ordering activity. However, should the term license of the software be discontinued before the specified period of the continuous term license has been satisfied, the perpetual license accrual shall be forfeited.
   b. The Contractor agrees to provide updates and maintenance service for the software after a perpetual license has accrued, at the prices and terms of Special Item Number 132-34, if the licensee elects to order such services. Title to the software shall remain with the Contractor.
8. UTILIZATION LIMITATIONS - (SIN 132-32, SIN 132-33, AND SIN 132-34)

a. Software acquisition is limited to commercial computer software defined in FAR Part 2.101.

b. When acquired by the ordering activity, commercial computer software and related documentation so legend shall be subject to the following:

(1) Title to and ownership of the software and documentation shall remain with the Contractor, unless otherwise specified.

(2) Software licenses are by site and by ordering activity. An ordering activity is defined as a cabinet level or independent ordering activity. The software may be used by any subdivision of the ordering activity (service, bureau, division, command, etc.) that has access to the site the software is placed at, even if the subdivision did not participate in the acquisition of the software. Further, the software may be used on a sharing basis where multiple agencies have joint projects that can be satisfied by the use of the software placed at one ordering activity's site. This would allow other agencies access to one ordering activity's database. For ordering activity public domain databases, user agencies and third parties may use the computer program to enter, retrieve, analyze and present data. The user ordering activity will take appropriate action by instruction, agreement, or otherwise, to protect the Contractor's proprietary property with any third parties that are permitted access to the computer programs and documentation in connection with the user ordering activity's permitted use of the computer programs and documentation. For purposes of this section, all such permitted third parties shall be deemed agents of the user ordering activity.

(3) Except as is provided in paragraph 8.b.2) above, the ordering activity shall not provide or otherwise make available the software or documentation, or any portion thereof, in any form, to any third party without the prior written approval of the Contractor. Third parties do not include prime Contractors, subcontractors and agents of the ordering activity who have the ordering activity's permission to use the licensed software and documentation at the facility, and who have agreed to use the licensed software and documentation only in accordance with these restrictions. This provision does not limit the right of the ordering activity to use software, documentation, or information therein, which the ordering activity may already have or obtains without restrictions.

(4) The ordering activity shall have the right to use the computer software and documentation with the computer for which it is acquired at any other facility to which that computer may be transferred, or in cases of Disaster Recovery, the ordering activity has the right to transfer the software to another site if the ordering activity site for which it is acquired is deemed to be unsafe for ordering activity personnel; to use the computer software and documentation with a backup computer when the primary computer is inoperative; to copy computer programs for safekeeping (archives) or backup purposes; to transfer a copy of the software to another site for purposes of benchmarking new hardware and/or software; and to modify the software and documentation or combine it with other software, provided that the unmodified portions shall remain subject to these restrictions.

(5) "Commercial Computer Software” may be marked with the Contractor's standard commercial restricted rights legend, but the schedule contract and schedule pricelist, including this clause, “Utilization Limitations” are the only governing terms and conditions, and shall take precedence and supersede any different or additional terms and conditions included in the standard commercial legend.

9. SOFTWARE CONVERSIONS - (SIN 132-32 AND SIN 132-33)

Full monetary credit will be allowed to the ordering activity when conversion from one version of the software to another is made as the result of a change in operating system, or from one computer system to another. Under a perpetual license (132-33), the purchase price of the new software shall be reduced by the amount that was paid to purchase the earlier version. Under a term license (132-32), conversion credits which accrued while the earlier version was under a term license shall carry forward and remain available as conversion credits which may be applied towards the perpetual license price of the new version.
10. DESCRIBITIONS AND EQUIPMENT COMPATIBILITY
The Contractor shall include, in the schedule pricelist, a complete description of each software product and a list of equipment on which the software can be used. Also, included shall be a brief, introductory explanation of the modules and documentation which are offered.

11. RIGHT-TO-COPY PRICING
The Contractor shall insert the discounted pricing for right-to-copy licenses.

2. ComUnify Speech-enabled IVR Application Packages SIN 132-33

The following applications are pre-built software packages that enable a faster, more cost effective implementation, using speech as a more natural manner of interaction. The scripts and grammars are already built-in, with prompts that are customizable for each customer. The automated applications act like one of your own trained staff answering the calls and can take care of many types of tasks pleasantly, consistently, and efficiently. The ComUnify system is required as a base.

A. Call routing

Utilizing this application, ComUnify answers all inbound calls coming through your PBX, pleasantly greets callers, and helps direct callers to their intended destination. The calls are then routed appropriately to persons, departments, functions, etc., or to other automated self-service applications. All types of calls can be managed with one access number: voice, DTMF (touch tone), fax, and TTY/TDD, with no additional equipment.

B. Auto attendant

Extended version of the Call Routing package that enables internal and external inbound callers to speak a person’s name or department name to be directly connected. This eliminates the need to remember extension numbers, to spell names on a keypad, or to wait for live assistance.

C. Frequently asked questions

This application automatically provides answers to informational questions that customers frequently ask, such as directions, hours of operation, instructions, lists of ingredients, sporting events schedules, etc. ComUnify manages these routine questions, increasing the availability of your staff to handle more complex, customer intensive, and perhaps revenue generating transactions.

D. Facility locator

Through the use of this application, callers simply speak their zip code or state and city information and ComUnify will provide the location of the closest facility.

E. Information request

When customers need to have information sent to them, such as catalogs or forms, ComUnify obtains name and address information, validates the address with the USPS database, and submits it to a database so that the requested information can be delivered accurately and quickly.

F. Order entry

Callers are able to easily and quickly place orders over the phone with this application. They can say product names, numbers, or descriptions to order items. ComUnify processes credit card transactions, recognizing credit card numbers with very high accuracy. Customer profiles can be accessed so that their particular information is available and callers don’t need to provide already-known information, such as name, address, phone number, purchasing history, etc. Addresses are validated with the USPS database to ensure an accurate delivery. ComUnify can also offer products, promotions, and discounts to customers for up-selling opportunities.

G. Status information

Customers and employees calling to determine the status of such things as an order or a return, inventory/item availability, even progress on tasks in a project, take up a high percentage of agent time. ComUnify can handle these informational service calls, increasing agent availability for other calls and tasks. In this application, ComUnify obtains some identification information from the caller, such as an order, item, or project number, or a person’s name, and then provides information about the requested item. For example, an order or returned item status request would provide information about shipping (when an item will ship or where an already-shipped item is in transit) or about the status of a returned item.

H. Address management

This application enables automatic updating of customer and employee addresses. Callers speak their name and address, ComUnify validates the address with the USPS database, and then submits the updated address to a database.

I. Form-filler/Survey completion

This application provides the basis for a service in which forms and surveys are completed over the phone. Callers are asked questions, their spoken responses are recognized and placed in the appropriate data spaces, then the completed form/survey is submitted to a database for processing or analysis.

J. Custom software application development

Development of custom speech-enabled software applications.
