132-33	DW-P	Stellent	Dynamic Watermark	Stellent Dynamic Watermark allows the system administrator to define specific variables to be dynamically displayed on PDF files upon viewing. When a user makes a request to view the PDF, Dynamic Watermark gathers and applies personalized and customized watermark data to that PDF on demand—the watermark values can change based upon who is viewing the PDF. These variables are displayed in the form of a watermark, which can be overlaid, under laid, applied to the first page, the last page, specific pages or a specific range of pages. Multiple watermarks can be displayed on a single PDF file or page at once utilizing a watermark template. These watermark variables can be any meta-data or user profile value within the Stellent system. Examples of the watermarks that could be applied are the username, division, title or content ID. This could also include the current time and date if needed. Dynamic Watermark offers some digital rights management capabilities within these parameters, as watermarks will carry over to hard copy printed versions of the file.	$15,000.00	$12,675.00

132-33	CMRK-P	Stellent	Content Markup	Stellent Content Markup allows users to collaborate on any web-based content. This product allows you to annotate, organize and collaborate on web pages and documents. With Stellent Content Markup you can place various types of markups, such as sticky notes, freeform drawings and text markups, on web viewable business content managed by the Stellent Content Server. Users can review web content with other members of their team or workgroup before publishing it -- and making it available to business partners, suppliers and customers. Stellent Content Markup provides powerful web annotation capabilities enabling reviewers to easily -- and intuitively -- communicate their comments during ad hoc review and formal workflow processes. &gt; NOTE: Professional Services is required for implementation. Cost is estimated at $10,000 for markup of dynamically converted content and PDFs only, but may vary on a customer by customer basis. Any markup needs out side of these bounds will require a full SOW process.	$30,000.00	$25,350.00
