The Humana Military Healthcare Services Advantage

Humana Military Healthcare Services delivers world-class health care services to millions of military personnel and their families and takes pride in being the most trusted name in military health solutions.

Humana Military has the experience, the people and the management systems in place to successfully deliver professional staffing services across the country. As our background credentials and expertise demonstrate, we are well positioned to deliver on the performance requirements for providing reliable managed care and staffing solutions with little risk to the customer.

Our past and ongoing clinical services delivered to the government suggest that we are uniquely qualified to perform placement services under the Federal Supply Schedule (FSS) contract. Contracts with Eglin Air Force Base, Jacksonville Naval Hospital and Fort Benning demonstrate the success of the Humana Military program of supplying and retaining qualified health care professionals for our government customers. We work hard to ensure that we exceed our customer's expectations.

For the highest quality professional and allied health care staffing services, consider Humana Military Healthcare Services.
